Corporate Sponsorship for 2007

Our 25th Year in Silicon Valley

If you have an active interest in promoting the study and discussion of economic issues of Silicon Valley, you may want to become a Corporate sponsor of the Organization. Here are some of the benefits of sponsorship of The Silicon Valley Round Table 2007.

- Paid membership for two principals, associates, or employees.
- Opportunities to contribute to the study and advancement of economic understanding provided by the Round Table.
- Identification of your organization as a sponsor on the SVRT web page and display of your corporate logo.
- Recognition of your sponsorship in the annual membership directory and display of your logo.

Corporate sponsorships can be established by returning this form, a check for $100, or a pledge to host a meeting during 2006, and membership applications for the two memberships you wish to have included.
